ALMANAC FOR THE REFORMED CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES

QUESTION .- What is thy only comfort in life and death?

ANSWER.—That I, with body and soul, both in life and death, am not my own, but belong unto my faithful Saviour Jesus Christ, who, with his precious blood, hath fully satisfied for all my sins, and delivered me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me, that, without the will of my Heavenly Father to a hair can fall from my head; yea, that all things must be subservient to my salvation; and therefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal to the process of the subservier willing and ready henceforth to live unto H m.

WHERE THE PRESIDENT WORSHIPS.—GRACE REFORMED CHURCH, WASHINGTON, D. C., REV. DR. J. M. SCHICK, PASTOR.

THE PRESIDENT'S CHURCH.

HEN Hon. Theodore Roosevelt went to Washington, D. C., as Vice-President of the United States he selected Grace Reformed church, of which Rev. John M. Schick is pastor, as the place where he and his family would attend divine services. Grace church, as is well known is one of the most modest church buildings in the city. On the first Sunday after Mr. Roosevelt became President he appeared at Grace Reformed church with a friend and took part in the service, and he and his family will continue to do so whenever they are in Washington. The illustration above gives an idea of the church, both within and without. The pew occupied by the President and his family is marked by the fan with a cross on it. It is expected that during this year a new church will be placed on the lot immediately in front of the present building.

A HYMN OF PRAISE.

Lord of the Endless Age, we raise To Thee a hymn of grateful praise. The Mighty Past is Thy domain; O'er all the Future [Thou shalt reign; Thy love has held the centuries through, Thy mercies are forever new.

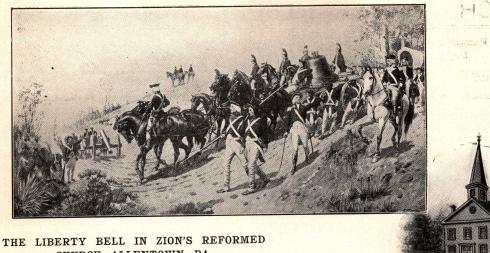

O Saviour, bind us unto Thee, In holy love and unity! In faithful service may we live, Through all the years Thy grace shall give; Then live in Thee the ages through, Where mercies are forever new!—Dr. McCook,

CHURCH, ALLENTOWN, PA.

EXT to our flag, the Liberty Bell, which may be seen in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, is honored by all Americans. Before the close of the Revolution it was already regarded as the most precious object associated with our struggle for independence. It was cast in London, England, by the order of the Colonial Assembly, and arrived in Philadelphia, August, 1752. By the direction of the Assembly there had been cast on its shoulder the prophetic inscription, "Proclaim Liberty through all the Land, to all the inhabitants thereof." Lev. 25:10. When the British advanced upon Philadelphia, after the battle of the Brandywine, in September, 1777, by order of the Executive Council, the bell, now known as "The Liberty Bell," together with the bells of Christ church and St. Peter's church, eleven bells in all, were removed from Philadelphia to Allentown by way of Bethlehem. The impression was given that the patriotic tongue of the Liberty Bell was silenced in the waters of the Delaware River. The diary of the Moravian church at Bethlehem, kept by the presiding bishop, has the following entry under date of September 23, 1777: "The bells from Philadelphia brought in wagons. The wagon with the State House bell broke down here, so it had to be unloaded; the other bells went on."

John Jacob Mickley, whose daughter was married to Henry, a son of Rev. Abraham Blumer, had charge of the Liberty Bell in its removal from Philadelphia to Allentown. When his wagon broke down at Bethlehem, the wagon of Frederick Leiser was used to bring it to Allentown, where it was placed under the floor of the Zion's Reformed church, Rev. Abraham Blumer, the pastor, assisting in its concealment. After the evacuation of Philadelphia by the British the bells were taken back in the latter part of the year 1778.

-There are some church members who contribute nothing to the support of the church. They should be ashamed of themselves. They can find money for other things, part of which they spend foolishly. Each member should feel, in his own heart, bound to contribute something regularly, week after week, even if it be only a few cents per week. Only beggars want something for nothing.

GOD OVER ALL.

One adequate support For the calamities of mortal life Exists-one only: an assured belief That the procession of our fate, howe'er Sad or disturbed, is ordered by a Being Of infinite benevolence and power, Whose everlasting purposes embrace All accidents, converting them to good. -William Wordsworth,

HISTORICAL EXHIBITS.

AST year two very interesting exhibits illustrating the history of the Reformed Church were held in Philadelphia; one at the Witherspoon Building during the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church; the other in Heidelberg church during the meeting of the Eastern Synod. Pictures of old churches, pioneer ministers, old college buildings, missionaries, and their work: copies of catechisms, hymn-books, liturgies, and other books written by men of the Reformed Church in the United States; miscellaneous articles of value because of their historic associations; and exhibits showing the progress in missions, publications, and Sunday-school work, made up the collection. Hundreds of people visited these exhibitions and showed their interest in the history of our Church. This shows the value of such work. In many families there are old books, papers and articles bearing on the early history and customs of the Church. They would be of considerable value if they were only added to a collection. The old treasures about the house should be looked up, and shown to the pastor or some one who is interested in local church history; and such articles as are of value should be sent to one of the historic collections of the Church. They are valuable now and will be more so in time to come. Articles little appreciated now will in time to come to be of value in illustrating the customs and habits of our church people. Pictures of old churches, pioneer pastors, and early church records should be sacredly preserved.

AN INTERESTING RELIC.

One of the relics preserved by the Catholic priests at Glarus, Switzerland, is the silver chalice used by the Swiss Reformer while preaching at that place. The photograph, which is reproduced here, was taken by Prof. W. J. Hinke. The cup is five inches in height and four inches wide across the top. The foot of the cup is adorned by four seals, containing pictures of the four Evangelists, together with their symbols. The stem has projecting knobs with rosettes adorning the ends. On the vase is cut, "Calixi Uly Zwingli, 1516."

THIS DAY IS THINE.

Today
Unsullied comes to thee, new born;
Tomorrow is not thine;
The sun may cease to shine
For thee ere earth shall greet its morn.
Be earnest, then, in thought and deed,
Nor fear approaching night;
Calm comes with evening light,
And hope and peace. The duty heed—
Today.—Ruskin.

MARBURG CASTLE.

N this page is given a picture of the exterior of Marburg Castle, and on the following page is given a picture of the interior. The name of Marburg is a bright one in the history of the Reformation period of the Reformed Church. It was here that Zwingli and Luther and their friends met to discuss the principles held by each, and to make the effort to unite the two wings of the Reformation movement. It was not owing to Zwingli at all that the effort failed. His conduct then reflects the irenical spirit of the Reformed Church of all time. The Church, now as then, still places Christian life and charity above creeds and sacraments. Those who have forgotten the clear story of Marburg and its conference will do well to read it.

A DUTCH ANSWER.

In 1750 Schlatter was sent to Holland to make a plea for America. The Church in Holland sent him back with six newly-ordained ministers as missionaries to the Reformed people in America. In our wealth can we not in one year—this year—equal our noble Dutch patrons by sending out six foreign missionaries; two to Japan and four to China—one minister to assist Rev. Hoy, one medical missionary and two women to work among the women of China? The plea has come to us. Let our answer be that of the Dutch Synod.

AN IDEAL MINISTER.

At church, with meek and unaffected grace, His looks adorn the venerable place;
Truth from his lips prevailed with double sway, And fools who came to scoff, remained to pray.
The service past, around the pious man,
With ready zeal, each honest rustic ran;
E'en children followed, with endearing wile,
And plucked his gown, to share the good man's smile:

His ready smile a parent's warmth expressed, Their welfare pleased him, and their cares distressed;

To them his heart, his love, his griefs were given, But all his serious thoughts had rest in heaven. As some tall cliff that lifts its awful form, Swells from the vale, and midway leaves the storm, Though round its breast the rolling clouds are spread.

Eternal sunshine settles on its head. —Goldsmith.

HOME MISSIONS ..

URING the last year the interest of the Church in Home Missions has increased. Our people are coming to realize more fully the importance of this sacred cause. Church-Building funds, of $500 each, continue to come to the Board with increasing frequency. This is one of the most hopeful signs of the times.

These funds are loaned without interest to Mission churches. During the year the receipts of the Board were $3,500 larger than the year before. More classes are accepting in full the apportionments sent down by the Synod. More churches are paying, in full, the apportionments sent down by the classes.

WHAT SHALL WE DO FOR THEM?

There are men in the Church who on account of age or sickness are disabled. There are godly women, widows of noble pastors, who gave their all to the Church. It should be our joy and glory as a Church to care for these. For years the Relief Society has done a noble work along this line. It has now on its roll the names of fiftyfive persons who received aid. Last year the Society divided $2,995 among these. But what is that among so many? We should, as a Church, give two or three times the amount to each one. This is a worthy cause. An offering should be taken in every church annually. Recently Elder Franz von Lackey, of Titusville, Pa., gave $500, the interest of which is to be used for the benefit of needy ministers and widows in the German Synod of the East.

MERCERSBURG.

THIS name has been famous in the history of our Reformed Church. Here was old Marshall College, the school from which came many of the best men of the Church. Here, too, was the Theological Seminary, made famous by such men as Mayer, Schaff, Nevin, Harbaugh, Higbee, Apple and Gerhart. Then came Mercersburg College under Drs. Apple and Higbee. When it closed the glory of Mercersburg seemed to have departed. But somehow it seems destined to remain a training place for men; for under the management of Dr. W. M. Irvine, Mercersburg Academy has become one of the rising preparatory schools in America. Old buildings have been remodeled and new ones erected. Everything is being done to make it famous for producing manly young men, strong in body, mind and heart. Among other things Dr. Irvine is making an effort to secure fine portraits of all the men whose names add lustre to that of Mercersburg, that daily looking on these the young men may be unconsciously influenced to form high ideals, and strive for the best things in life. In October, too. the three portraits of Dr. Higbee, Dr. Apple and

OUR PUBLICATION HOUSE.

HE Publication House has been called the intelligence bureau of the Church. It issues the catechisms, hymnals, liturgies, devotional books and church papers of the denomination and procures for the members of the Church also Bibles and books of all kinds, as well as all church supplies. Anyone who thinks of this at all must see the importance of the work the Publication House carries on. Only a reading church is an intelligent, active and aggressive church. It is hard to see how a person can be an intelligent member of the Church who does not read what the Church is doing. Just as the mechanic, printer, merchant or farmer needs his trade journal, so the church member needs his church paper. This almanac goes into the hands of twenty-five thousand people who should read the Reformed Church Messenger. If the reader of these lines is not a subscriber, he should become one at once.

—Beginning with 1783 Rev. John William Weber preached regularly in what is now known as Pittsburg. At the time he began there were forty or fifty cabins outside the fort, but no church. The Reformed Church was the first on the ground. But this advantage was afterwards neglected, and then lost; or today we might have in Pittsburg as many churches as in Cleveland.

—The church which does little for missions has little of the spirit of Christ and the apostles. A selfish church is hardly a Christian church. It is by no means enough for a church to pay its own pastor and its own running expenses. Freely ye have received; freely give!

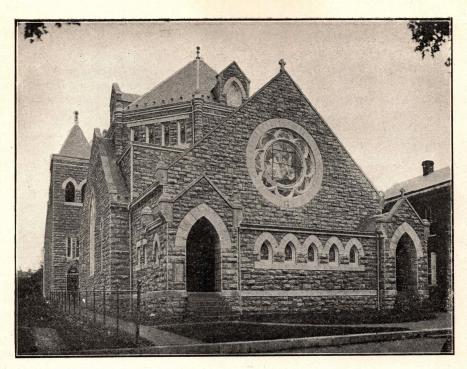

The new acts of the apostles—these are the works of the successors of the disciples of the Lord. They consist of what God's people are doing today, and are set down in your church paper. Read the Messenger.

CHRIST REFORMED CHURCH, MARTINSBURG, W. VA., REV. JOHN A. HOFFHEINS, D.D., PASTOR.

Corner-stone laid August 11, 1900. Consecrated September 22, 1901.

THE NEW CHURCH AT MARTINSBURG, W. VA..

HE main auditorium is 79 feet in depth by 50 feet in width. It is built of native blue limestone, broken range, trimmed with Cleveland graystone. From floor to dome the height is 47 feet. The large rose window is the Children's Memorial, the gift of the Sundayschool. That over the altar was placed by Mrs. George P. Blessing. The east window is placed in memory of Michael Seibert, George H. Small and Mrs. Laura V. Cushwa, that on the west in memory of Louis G. Matthaei. The large marble baptismal font is the gift of the young ladies of Class No. 6 of the Sunday-school, the pastor's wife, teacher. The marble altar is the gift of the pastor and family. The large Bible, hymnal and Order of Worship are the gift of a friend of the pastor. The smaller Bible is the gift of Mr. H. J. Homrich. The carpet was placed by the Mite Society. The building is heated by steam and lighted by electricity. Cost, $20,000.

The chapel is built of brick with limestone front and tower, and is 58x42 feet. It has two front entrances, one to the chapel proper, the other to the pastor's study. On the west side are the library room and infant department. On the east, the pastor's study and ladies parlor; in the center is the main body of the school. There is a second floor with a wide gallery on three sides, with six large class-rooms and a long space for visitors. All the classes, except in the infant department are furnished with tables and chairs. The arrangement is most complete and comfortable.

THE HOLY COMMUNION.

The celebration of the Holy Communion is the most solemn, the most instructive, and the most comforting service of our whole Christian worship. It represents all that our Saviour has done for us, and is doing now. It suggests all that he wants us to be. This service we should never miss. It should always be kept in mind, and nothing should keep us away. We cannot afford to do without its help and comfort.

CHINA.

Rev. Hoy spent the summer at Kuling with his family. As the autumn approached he went to Yo-Chow, in the northeastern part of the province of Hunan, where our work will center. His family is expected to follow him as soon as he can secure a suitable residence.

Kuling is a health resort to which missionaries repair during summer to escape the prostrating heat of Central China. Its elevation is 3,500 feet above sealevel. It is reached by a rapidly ascending road, terminated by a long flight of steps which lands the traveler on a plain on which the town is built.

Our work in China has suffered interruption by the prevailing disturbances, and also by Rev. F. Cromer's failing eye-sight, causing his resignation. The Board will send out to Rev. Hoy a companion missionary as soon as possible, also a medical missionary, and ladies to establish a Girls School, as soon as the home Church furnishes the necessary means.

—Rev. John William Weber was the first Reformed minister located west of the Allegheny Mountains.

—Rev. John Christman was the first Reformed minister who settled in Ohio. He settled in Warren county, Ohio, in 1803. Soon the number of ministers increased, and in 1820 Ohio Classis, with five ministers, fifty congregations, and eighteen hundred members, was organized.

—As a Church we need more enthusiasm and greater liberality. God in Christ commands, and the needs of our fellow men call, us to greater works than we have yet done.

HEIDELBERG REFORMED CHURCH, YORK, PA., REV. FRANCIS C. YOST, PASTOR.

Pa., was organized June 9th, 1867. A small building was erected on North Duke street, 1870. When the congregation outgrew that home a site for a new church was secured at the corner of George and Philadelphia streets, where a chapel was erected. Before erecting the church proper the congregation felt the need of a still larger building site, and the present place, on East Philadelphia street, adjoining the handsome government building, was purchased at a cost of $17,500. The cornerstone was laid on August 4th, 1901. The building is to be completed and fully equipped and furnished in 1902.

The dimensions of the church building are 58x 110 feet. The exterior will be white limestone with Cleveland sandstone trimmings. The interior wood-work will be oak.

The chapel immediately in the rear and adjoining the church will be 75x90 feet. There will be galleries on three sides, divided into classrooms. The basement will be fitted up with toilet rooms and a large assembly hall. The seating capacity of the chapel will be about 1,000. That of the church about 650. The cost of the buildings will be $35,000.

SWISS REFORMED CHURCH, NEW GLARUS, WISCONSIN.

HE Swiss Reformed congregation built its first house of worship of hewn logs in 1849. At that time the congregation had a membership of about 60 families—all Swiss. In 1858 the congregation built a substantial stone church of antique Swiss architecture with a square tower, surmounted by a small dome containing two bells. This church was taken down in the spring of 1900 and the present church with all the modern improvements was built. The new church is constructed of Menomonie sand-moulded brick and trimmed with Bradford stone. It is located in the center of the village and is an honor to the village and its vicinity. The high tower contains three bells and a tower-clock. Glarus, a village of about 600 inhabitants, originally a Swiss colony, ranks with its new church with large cities. This church was dedicated March 24, 1901.

JAPAN.

Our mission in Japan is rejoicing and laboriously working in the midst of a blessed and growing outpouring of God's Holy Spirit. A large ingathering of souls is anticipated.

There are 40 Sunday-schools connected with our work in Japan. The teachers in both our schools, the wives of our missionaries, the Bible women, the advance Christian students in both schools, and others, serve as teachers both in those in Sendai, and in the vicinity. Some of them teach in two schools.

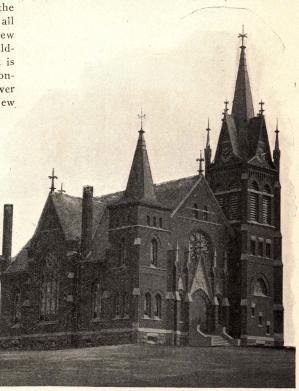

The Industrial Home is in a flourishing condition with some 70 inmates. They are poor young men, seeking an education.

They in part support themselves, by selling newspapers, milk from the dairy connected with the Home, and other employment, to which they devote two or three hours each day.

Morning prayers and Scripture reading are observed in the Chapel in the Seminary Building, which all the students, both Christians and non-Christians, are required to attend.

—If you have little money to give to the Church you can give your service, you can go to church regularly, you can take your friends along, you can take an earnest part in the service, you can always speak well of the church, its work and its worship, you can work when asked, you can do a little something to help everything along.

—The members of the consistory, and the officers and teachers in the Sunday-school, occupy places of trust. They are examples to all the flock.

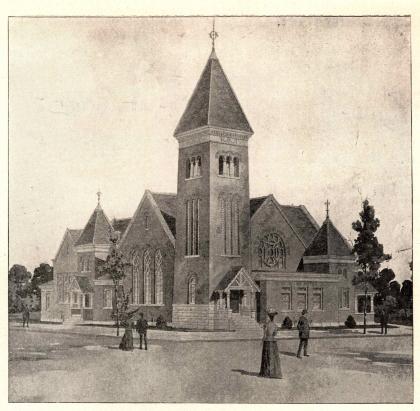

SWISS REFORMED CHURCH, NEW GLARUS, WIS., REV. A. ROTH, PASTOR.

They should lead in all good works, and in liberal giving.

-Every congregation should have on hand a supply of hymnals so as to be able to put one into the hands of all visitors, be he friend or stranger, that they may take part in the worship.

Every church member should feel it a duty to try, by good example, prayer, and work, to bring others to the church, and to a loving knowledge of God in Christ Jesus.

FIRST REFORMED CHURCH, MIAMISBURG, O., REV. H. M. HERMAN, D.D., PASTOR.

THE NEW CHURCH AT MIAMISBURG, O.

HIS new church is a beautiful structure of most modern design. It contains a large audience room, Sunday-school department, ladies' parlor and pastor's study on the main floor. It has a seating capacity of 875 people. Two vestibules and two cloakrooms are also on the main floor. The basement has a large dining-room, kitchen, pantry and cloak-rooms. The building is constructed of pressed bricks with stone trimmings, and is 86 by 120 feet in dimensions. The contract price of the building was $16,550. The furnishing, including organ, pews, heating, lighting, art glass, pulpit furniture, cost $6.500. The whole building is carpeted throughout. Of this amount the Sundayschool contributed $1,600. The work of the Ladies Aid Society is also worthy of special mention. The corner-stone was laid October II, 1900. The church, complete in all particulars, was formally opened August 25, 1901. By unanimous request the sermon on that occasion was preached by the pastor. The church will be dedicated as soon as its entire cost is met.

—A congregation may be judged by its church property. The church building should be just as good as the people can afford. It should be kept in good repair. The grounds should be kept clean, and in good order. A dilapidated church and disorderly grounds are signs of spiritual laziness.

MISS CATHERINE BARBARA PIFER.

TISS CATHERINE BARBARA PIFER was elected a teacher in the Girls School, Sendai, Japan, in March, 1901. She reached Japan in company with Rev. and Mrs. H. K. Miller, in October. She was born in Paradise, Jefferson county, Pa. She is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Pifer, and is 28 years old. She is a lineal descendant of Rev. She has had five years experience as a teacher in the public schools. Before going to Japan she spent one year at the Allentown College for Women. She is an intelligent Christian young woman, enjoys the love and confidence of all who know her here, and will soon make friends in her new home.

THE SCHLATTER COMMUNION SETS.

INTERESTING RELICS.

The communion sets, the picture of which is given here, were brought from Europe by Michael Schlatter. They were much admired at the Reformed Historical Exhibit, Philadelphia, last year, and the photograph from which this cut was made was taken by the Presbyterian Historical Society. This same cut has appeared in a recent issue of the journal of that society. The one set was in use for many years by the Reformed church at Walkersville, Md., the other at Benjamin's Reformed church, Md,

The Biggest Seller has been The Golden Censer Devotions for Young Christians

By REV. HENRY HARBAUGH, D.D.

The new edition of this valuable Prayer Book has outsold all former ones. Its sale during the year has exceeded that of any other book, excepting the Hymnal, published in the Church. This is due to the constantly increasing recognition of the value of its contents, to not only the young and newly confirmed, but to all Christians.

By the use of fine Bible paper, its 419 pages, together with Certificates of Birth, Baptism and Confirmation, have been reduced to a thickness that, including the binding, makes it the most complete Pocket Prayer Book. We commend it as

A Gift Book Appropriate at All Seasons

An examination of the contents will convince pastors and consistories of its superiority over the ordinary confirmation certificate.

ORDER OF WORSHIP AND REFORMED CHURCH HYMNAL

Those members of the Reformed Church who have been making use of the Order of Worship bound with the Hymnal often found it a burden to carry or to hold the combined book because of its bulkiness. This objection has been entirely done away with in a new edition printed on a special paper which is thin, yet turns readily and print does not show through. They are bound as the best Bibles are, and are absolutely flexible. These Hymnals represent the finest and nicest of the book-making art that the Publication Board has ever offered the Church. Note particularly the sizes as given in the list below, and that the line includes not only the complete Order of Worship with the Music and Pocket Hymnal, but also the Partial Edition (Forms) of the Order of Worship bound with the two sizes of the Hymnal.

We might well call this the "Presentation Line."

Union With the Church

This is another of Dr. Harbaugh's best books which has been brought out in new dress and style. There are 127 pages, 4 x 6 inches, bound in embossed sllk cloth, with gold side title. The price is 20c., postpaid. The price is so low because you are expected to

Buy It to Loan or Give Away

It was published for the benefit of those outside the Church. In it are met the six most common objections to uniting with the Church, and nine arguments for union with the Church are presented. This book has convicted many sinners and led to their becoming members of the Church. Twenty cents to start one of the books in its work is missionary money well spent.

Saving the Children-Gracious Nurture in the Family

By REV. GEO. B. RUSSELL, A.M., D.D., LL.D.

By REV. GEO. B. RUSSELL, A.M., D.D., LL.D.

A book for Reformed people by a Reformed author. Written in a most interesting and direct style—such as will not the the reader. As a help to parents, a benefit to children, an aid to the Church, its aim is to glorify Christ. A reading of it will impress you with its value to all members of the home circle, to the Sunday-school, and to the Church.

220 pages, 5½ x 7¾. superior paper printed in large, clear type, and durably bound in neat silk grain and art vellum celoth. The price is 75c., postage paid, which shows that the hook was not published for profit. What is realized out of its sale above cost will be devoted to benevolence.

From One Dollar to Sixty Cents

To give it larger circulation and thus promote its value to the Reformed Church membership, we have bought the copy-

Notes on the Heidelberg Catechism for Pastors, Teachers and Catechumens

By Rev. A. C. Whitmer.

This is the best book of its kind published, and should not only be found on the reading-table of every family of the Reformed Church, but should be the possession of every member of the denomination. There are 323 pages of simple and concise explanation of the Catechism. The price we have reduced from one dollar to sixty cents, postpaid. Copies sent for examination, subject to return, if desired.

In this connection we would announce a Lower Price on

One Hundred and Fifty Years of Missionary Activity

By the same Author.

It is fifty cents, postpaid, now, instead of seventy-five cents. Secure a copy ere the edition is exhausted.

The Reformed Church Messenger

Founded in 1828. Rev. C. J. Musser, Editor.

Rev. C. J. Musser, Editor.

The "Messenger" is a church and famfly paper, issued weekly for the benefit of the people of the Reformed Church and in the interest of its benevolent institutions. It is the property of Eastern, Potomac and Pittsburg Synods, and is supported solely by the income it receives in a business way. It is the only paper issued by the Church east of Pittsburg; but whilst it is owned by the three Eastern Synods, it aims to represent the whole Church. It has a large corps of able writers, and its different departments are as ably edited as those of any denominational paper published. It prints weekly reports from Schools, Seminaries, Mission Boards, Orphans Homes, and other institutions of the Church, as well as news concerning congregations and pastors. It represents the thought concerning congregations and pastors. It represents the thought and spirit of the Reformed Church, but it is not sectarian, and is read with pleasure by members of other churches. It is fully up to the times, and anyone wishing to know what the Reformed Church is doing should read its columns. It has the largest circulation of any paper in the Reformed Church. It is your paper, if you are a member of the Church. The rate is $1.75 per year in advance.

The Reformed Church Review

Motto: "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." Rev. Prof. William Rupp, D.D., Editor.

This Review is the lineal descendant of "The Reformed Quarterly Review," and of "The Mercersburg Review." It is an organ for Christological, historical and positive theology, as that is understood in the Reformed Church in the United States. It is catholic, liberal and eminently practical. It invites discussion in its pages of all questions pertaining to literature, science, art and philosophy, as well as of practical and pure theology. No minister or intelligent layman can do without it.

Subscription rate, $2.00 per annum.

To any one sending $8.00 and the names of four new subscribers, a fifth copy will be sent free.

In selecting an employee do business men give preference to the graduate of a business school? Let us answer that question with some statistics: From Aug. 1, 1300 to Aug. 1, 1301, Peirce School received 1453 applications for office help. During the month of July alone 155 applications for office assistants were received Of these 155 positions we were able to fill but 70, or less than 50 per cent, owing to the fact that our list of available students was exhausted.

These figures show that Peirce School is especially favored by the business community; the demand for our graduates is twice as great as the supply. This is because the school has a known reputation; its prestige attaches to the student and weighs in favor of his chances.
